Troop Leader Training

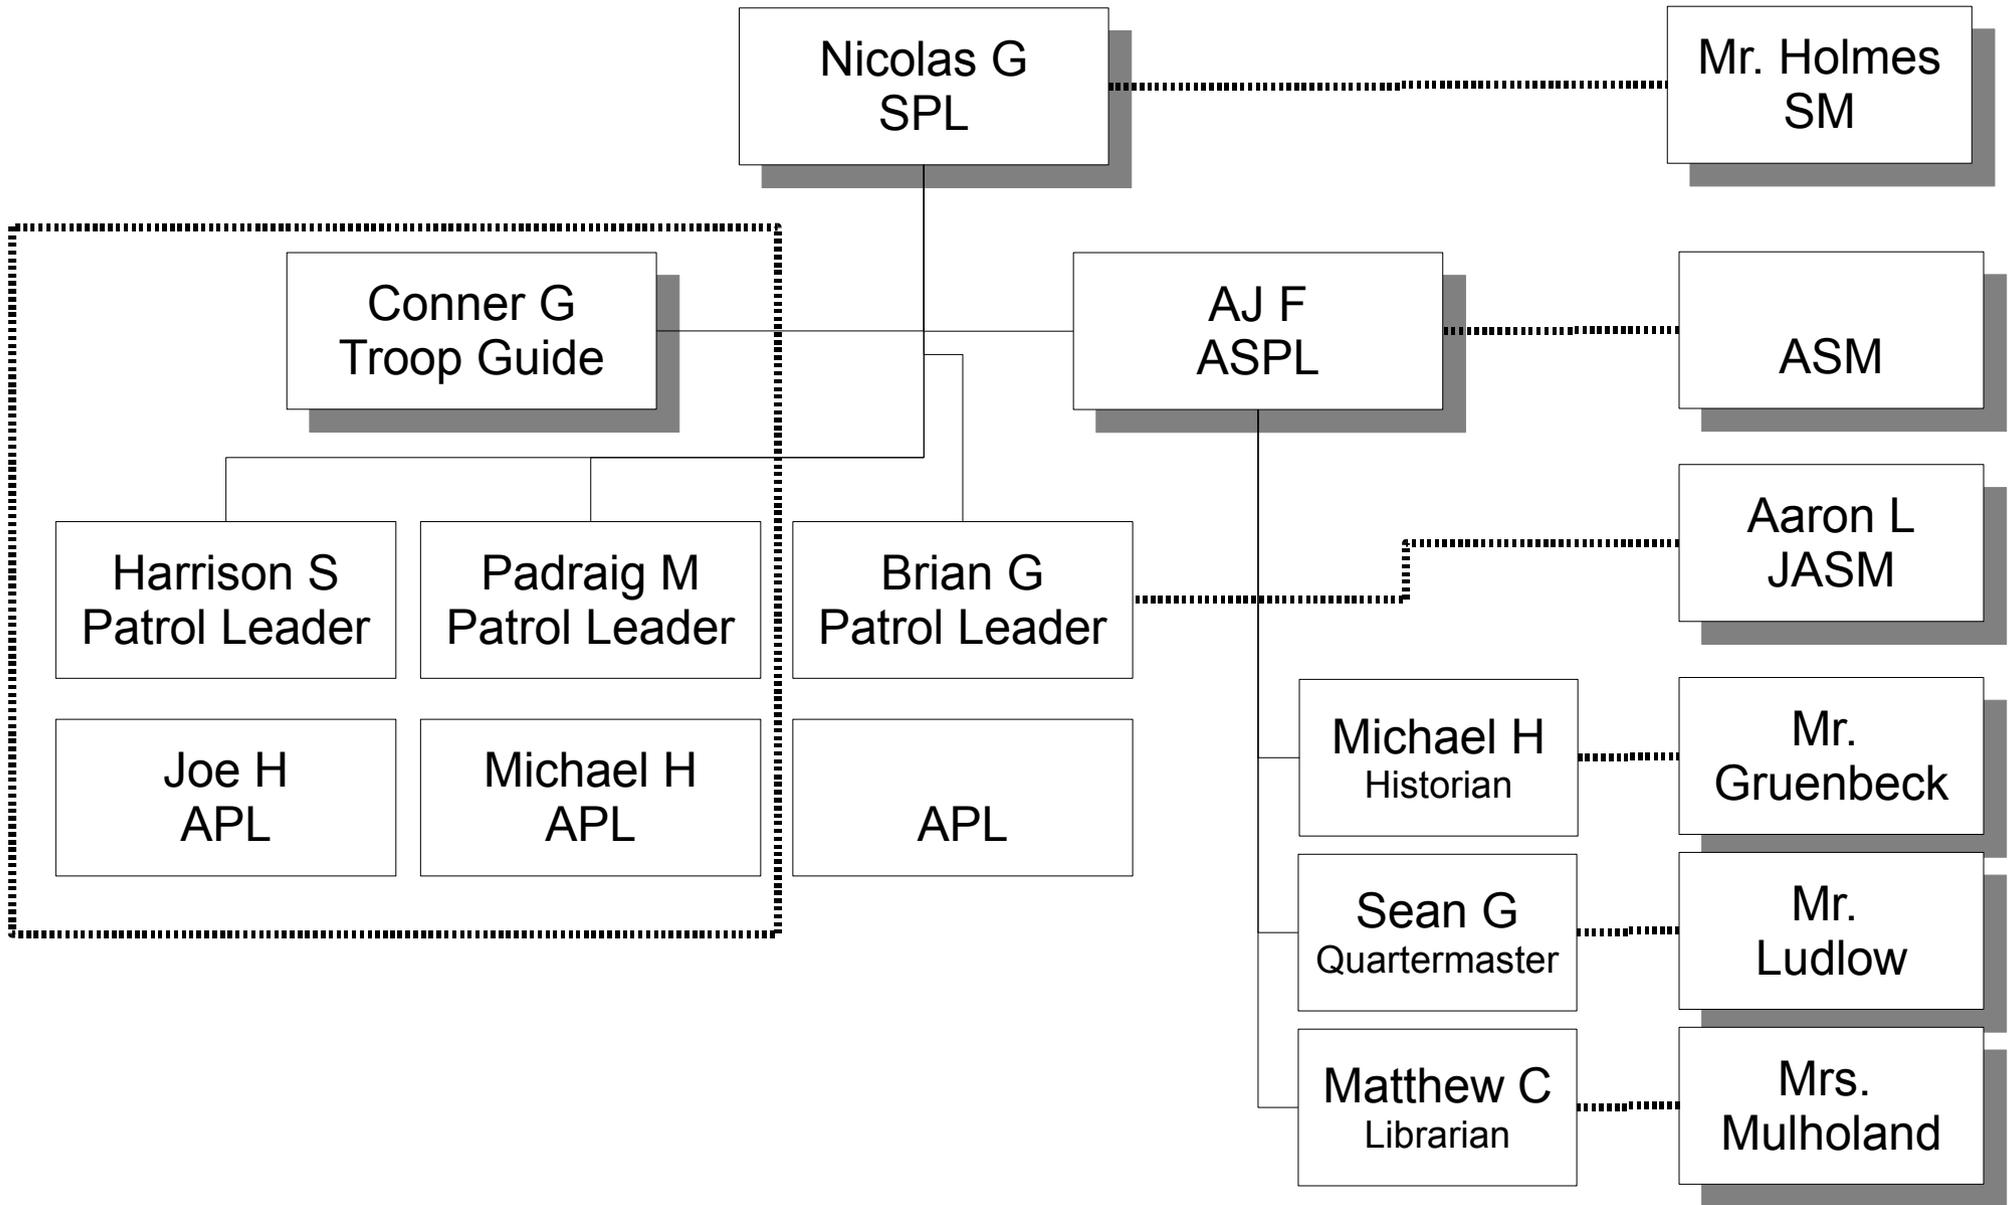

The Boy Led Troop

“The patrol method is not a way to operate a Boy Scout troop, it is the only way. Unless the patrol method is in operation, you don't really have a Boy Scout troop.”

—Robert S. S. Baden-Powell

Visions of Success

Scoutmaster's Vision of Success

Nic's SPL Vision of Success

The vision of Troop 339 is to provide a fun and challenging environment where patrols can build their teamwork and advance in personal skills that will aid them later in life through leadership and outdoor experiences.

Teaching EDGE

EDGE (explain, demonstrate, guide. enable) is a process for training that will be taught at the council-level NYLT course.

The key to making EDGE work is to use it for all teaching opportunities.

Make it a habit.

The four-step process is simple for teaching any skill.

- 1. Explain-The trainer explains how something is done.
- 2. Demonstrate-After the trainer explains. the trainer demonstrates while explaining again.
- 3. Guide-The learner tries the skill while the trainer guides him through it.
- 4. Enable-The trainee works on his own under the watchful eye of the trainer. The trainer's role in this step is to remove any obstacles to success. which enables the learner to succeed.

Know – Be – Do

Know – What is my job?

Be – How should I do my job?

Do – What is Expected of Me?

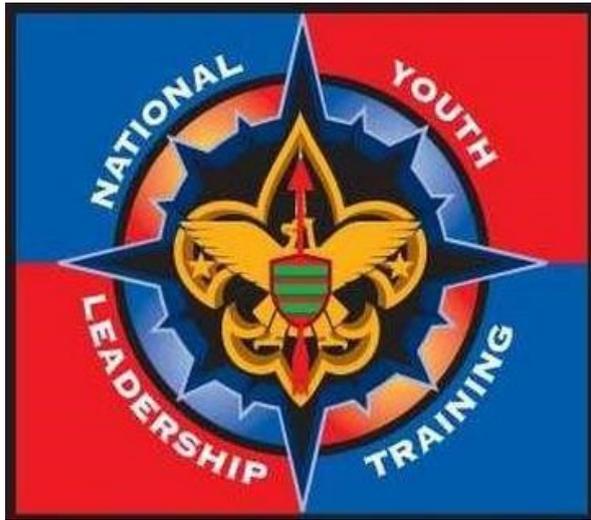

Stop – Start – Continue

- What should we start doing that we are not currently doing?
- What do we stop doing that is not working?
- What should we continue doing that is working well and helps us succeed?

Vision of Success for Your Troop Position

Congratulations
You are now officially trained for your troop position

The NYLT course centers around the concepts of what a leader must BE, what he must KNOW, and what he must DO. The key elements are then taught with a clear focus on HOW TO. The skills come alive during the week as the patrol goes on a Quest for the Meaning of Leadership.

NYLT is a six-day course. Content is delivered in a troop and patrol outdoor setting with an emphasis on immediate application of learning in a fun environment. Interconnecting concepts and work processes are introduced early, built upon, and aided by the use of memory aids, which allows participants to understand and employ the leadership skills much faster.

In Orange County Council, this program is called Trailblazers. Ask your SPL for more info.

The National Advanced Youth Leadership Experience (NAYLE) is offered by the Philmont Training Center and based at the Rocky Mountain Scout Camp.

This camp is designed to provide you with a Philmont based wilderness encounter that motivates you to follow a life of helping others succeed based on the values expressed in the Scout Oath and Law. The Philmont leadership is committed to making NAYLE a very special experience. You will live in a patrol setting at Rocky Mountain Scout Camp where you will use leadership skills to resolve exciting and challenging back country situations. This week will conclude with a closing challenge for each Scout to build upon the Legacy of Waite Phillips, the benefactor of the Philmont Scout Ranch.
